

2nd INTERNATIONAL MASTERCLASS ON PROCTOLOGY AND PELVIC FLOOR DISEASES

Chairs: Gabriele Naldini and Tommaso Simoncini

8th-9th JULY 2021 - PISA, ITALY

INTRODUCTION

Dear Friends,

It is our pleasure to invite you to the 2nd edition of International Masterclass on Proctology and Pelvic Floor Diseases (IMoPPD_21) that will be held on July 8th -9th 2021 in Pisa.

This second edition will be characterized by interactive round tables and all the attendees will have the opportunity to actively join the discussion by answering specific questions through digital supports.

The Masterclass will offer also lectures, oral presentations and consultant corners on the clinical-diagnostic approach and the treatment of proctologic and pelvic floor challenging topics.

We will dedicate a lot of time to educational videos and discussion with a panel of experts. The Faculty will be international, involving different cultures, and it will be composed from a group of senior experts together with a group of young experts. The purpose is to induce all the participants to put their ideas into a dynamic discussion with different points of view belonging to different ages, cultures and countries.

We will wait to see you in Pisa on July 2021
